May 2019

You're invited to join us at DOROT (171 West 85th Street) for any of these exciting upcoming programs. Space is limited: To RSVP please e-mail dorotprograms@dorotusa.org or call 917-441-3745.

Reunification Film Screening and Q&A with Director Alvin Tsang Sunday, May 5th, 1 - 2:45pm

Join us in celebration of Asian American Heritage Month as we welcome Director Alvin Tsang for a screening of his documentary film, Reunification. Filmed over the course of 17 years, this award-winning film gives a personal view of the contemporary Asian American immigrant experience.

Art History Lecture: Joan Miró's Universe Thursday, May 16th, 6 - 7:15pm

Beloved artist Joan Miró is best known for his bright colors, ambiguous backgrounds, entrancing lines, and a personal symbolism ranging from the mysterious to the erotic. Together we will explore the life and creative universe of this well-known modernist. Led by Larissa Bailiff, New York-based Art Historian and frequent MoMA Lecturer.

Harlem Jazz and the Jewish Influence: A performance featuring acclaimed vocalist Brianna Thomas Sunday, May 19th, 1 - 2:15pm

Enjoy an afternoon of live jazz from Benny Goodman, Stan Getz, George Gershwin, and more. Hear the story behind each piece as we explore the intersection between the history of Harlem jazz and Jewish musicians. In partnership with the Jazz Museum in Harlem.

Shakespeare Lecture: Beyond the Politics of the Moment Thursday, May 30th, 5:30 - 6:45pm

Shakespeare writes about politics in circumstances from medieval England to ancient Rome to reflect on his own moment. We'll learn about how these plays continue to resonate through time, with insights that often seem startlingly current. Led by Cecilia Rubino, award-winning director, writer, and educator.
