

In-Person Programs Summer 2022

Welcome back! This summer, join DOROT for In-Person programs that include talks, art making, storytelling, music and more.

Multi-Media Metamorphosis: Lasting Impressions Art Making Workshop

2 Sessions: Fridays, July 15 and July 22, 11:00am-12:00pm

Join Art Educator Margalit Cutler for a 2-session art making workshop in which we explore the topic of personal transition. What was a life changing moment for you? Was it instant or gradual? Together we reflect on events or phases that created a change, for better, worse, or in between. We will journal and share with each other and then translate our metamorphosis into a visual story, using sketching, painting, and collage.

Out@Dorot

2 Sessions: Tuesdays, July 19 and August 2, 11:00am-12:00pm

Join us for our bi-weekly LGBTQ+ check-in and discussion group for our Lesbian, Gay, Bi, Trans, and more elders.

The Hangman and His Wife: The Life and Death of Reinhard Heydrich

Author Talk with journalist Stephen Silverman and editor Victoria Wilson

Monday, July 25, 12:00pm-1:30pm

Journalist Stephen Silverman and editor Victoria Wilson speak about their latest book, The Hangman and His Wife. Their biography illuminates the life of Reinhard Heydrich, one of Nazi Germany's most notorious criminals, as revealed through his wife's recollections. Learn about this important and horrific period of history, and about the fascinating story related to the creation of this book, which was 30 years in the making.

Everyday Heroes: Storytelling Workshop with Robin Bady

2 Sessions: Tuesdays, August 2 and August 9, 1:00pm-3:00pm

Award-winning storytelling Robin Bady will lead a storytelling workshop on finding our everyday heroes. Robin has led many programs with us in the past, most recently, "Wisdom Tales," where participants wrote their own legacy-based fairy tales.

August Summer Social

Friday, August 19, 12:00pm-2:00pm

By popular demand we are offering a second Summer Social, this time with a theme of Summer Delights. Reconnect with DOROT staff and each other as we share DOROT news and ways to stay active and keep cool this summer.

Joseph Cornell: Dreams and Shadows – Lecture with Cliff Tisdale

Tuesday, August 30, 3:00pm-4:30pm

Art Historian Cliff Tisdell discusses the shadowbox works of self-taught artist Joseph Cornell (1903-1972). Working with found objects, pages from books, dime-store trinkets and other ephemera, Cornell transformed everyday materials into extraordinary universes, and enshrined fleeting moments in time. This event will also be available virtually by Zoom.

Storytelling with Pearls of Wisdom

Wednesday, August 31, 12:00-1:00pm

Join our storytelling troupe of elder storytellers for a Pearls of Wisdom showcase. Also, learn how you can audition to become a member of the troupe!

Klezmer Violin Concert

Thursday, September 15, 2:00pm-3:30pm

Violin virtuoso Jake Shulman-Ment, "considered one of the finest klezmer fiddlers on the planet" (NPR), presents a one-of-a-kind concert. Jake will speak to the audience intimately through his singular voice on the violin; sing Yiddish folk songs of philosophy, love, and resistance; and share stories about life, music, wandering, and being human. This event is the first in a series of concerts featuring folk music traditions from around the world. Upcoming concerts will feature Korean, Blues, Occitan, and Arabic traditions. This event will also be available virtually by Zoom.

COVID19-Safety Protocols:

Your safety continues to be our top priority. Everyone who participates in DOROT's IN-PERSON programs must wear a mask, be fully vaccinated, and have at least one booster if the appropriate time has lapsed from the initial vaccination series. Program participants are required to provide proof of vaccination.

Please read our COVID-19 Safety Protocols:

<https://www.dorotusa.org/covid-19-policy-update>

RSVP is required for all In-Person events.

To RSVP:

Email dorotprograms@dorotusa.org or call (212) 769-2850

All events will take place at DOROT, 171 West 85th Street, New York City.