This fall, DOROT will continue to offer a select offering of in-person programs at our Manhattan headquarters. All attendees must RSVP in advance and be fully vaccinated and boosted. Our programs are designed for adults 60+ to encourage health and wellness, create social connection among peers, and provide opportunities for dynamic learning and enrichment.

Jewish Food Through Generations
Friday, December 9, 10:00 AM – 11:30 AM
Hélène Jawhara Piñer, author of Sephardi, shares recipes of the Jews of Spain.

Global Music Series: African Rhythms
Thursday, December 15, 2:00 PM – 3:30 PM
Join Salieu Suso, traditional African jali (musician-historian), for an exploration of African and Afro-Cuban rhythms.

Chanukah Music and Candle Lighting
Tuesday, December 20, 3:00 PM – 4:30 PM
Yiddish theatre star Daniella Rabbani and cellist Elad Kabilio present holiday songs and stories. Followed by a menorah lighting ceremony.

To Register, Please Call:
(917) 441-3745

Programs will take place at DOROT headquarters:
171 W 85th Street
New York, NY 10024

Visit dorotusa.org • Email dorotprograms@dorotusa.org