

In-Person Programs

Winter 2023

This winter, DOROT will continue to offer a select offering of in-person programs at our Manhattan headquarters. All attendees must RSVP in advance and wear a mask. Our programs are designed for adults 60+ to encourage health and wellness, create social connection among peers, and provide opportunities for dynamic learning and enrichment.

Duck Walk

Tuesday, January 10, 10:00 AM – 11:15 AM; We will meet outside Central Park

Come see the varied overwintering birds in Central Park! We will be walking together around the reservoir, where we will enjoy multiple duck species and some of our winter birds.

Winter Celebration

Thursday, January 12, 2:00 PM – 4:00 PM

Break out your most festive attire and join us for a winter celebration! We will share the songs and musical memories you submitted for our Holiday Playlist, learn dance moves from the past decades, enjoy warm drinks and seasonal treats, and gather together as a community.

Global Music Series: Eleonore Weill

Thursday, January 19, 2:00 PM – 3:30 PM

Join us as Eleanor Weill performs a mix of klezmer and Yiddish song, Romanian folk music, Occitan folk music, and various other styles on wooden flutes, piano, and vocals.

Classical Concert: Eric Hunter

Friday, January 20, 12:00 PM – 1:30 PM

Join us for a classical piano concert with classically-trained concert pianist and composer, Eric Hunter.
