Benefits

If you already use email, being able to access it from your phone means you can open and respond to emails on the go. This is especially useful if you need information contained in an email, such as an appointment time or location, or if you received pictures that you want to share with someone when you are out and about. There will never be a need to wait until you get home or to use your home computer as a separate device. Whatever you do in your email account automatically updates on all your email connected devices, so you can switch between the devices without any loss of information.
Prerequisites

- iPhone with IOS 12.x or later
- Active mobile provider (e.g. Verizon, Sprint, AT&T)
- Apple ID added to iPhone
- Mail app associated with current email account
  (separate Quick Start guide available if you need to create a new email account)
Introduction

The word “app” is short for application. An application tells your phone how to do a related set of tasks. In this guide, you will learn how to use the Mail app.

Email and text messages have become the primary types of electronic communication used on smart phones. (Text emails each covered in separate Quick Start Guide.)

Your coach will support you as you use this guide to learn to compose, read reply and add attachments to email. You can refer to this guide anytime you want to do any of these steps independently. Please write or draw on the pages in any way that will help your independent use of the guide.

Different people like to communicate in different ways. When adding someone to your contacts, ask them if they prefer calls, text or email. Using their preferred method when you contact them will help you to get a quicker response.
